

CetAMBICion Newsletter

No 4 (Last newsletter)
April 2th, 2024

Results

The CetAMBICion project "Coordinated strategy for the assessment, monitoring and management of cetaceans in the Bay of Biscay and Iberian Coast sub-region" has come to an end. Don't miss the video summary of the results, where you can find out about the main actions carried out and the progress made in the study of cetaceans and the measures to try to reduce accidental captures.

We assessed the fishing gears, areas, and seasons with the highest risk of cetacean bycatch in the Bay of Biscay

Read more

The CetAMBICion project proposes common measures to reduce cetacean bycatch in the Bay of Biscay and Iberian Coast sub-region

Read more

Resources and tools

Within the framework of the communication and awareness-raising plan, different educational materials have been produced with the aim of publicising the problem of accidental cetacean captures in the Bay of Biscay and the Iberian Coast, as well as the actions and progress of the project to try to reduce them. Consult them.

Marine mammal by-catch training materials

Fact sheets on incidental catches of cetaceans

Events of interest

Ocean Decade 2024 Conference

2021-2030 United Nations Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development

In the framework of the United Nations Decade of Ocean Sciences for Sustainable Development (2021-2030), the Ocean Decade Conference will be held in Barcelona from 10 to 12 April 2024.

Under the theme "delivering the science we need for the ocean we want", this event will focus on ocean science, sustainability and innovation and will bring together experts from around the world.

Website

Although the project has ended, the website will remain active. You can consult the actions, studies and reports, results and other materials developed.

Help us to assess the website by filling in this form.

Questionnaire

